Sampson & Halvorsen

Entertained Their Friends.

Messieurs Lawrence E. Nash, Edward J. Whitner and Miss Caroline Garrison held a reception on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nash in honor of Mrs. Law of Chicago, sister to Mrs. Whitner. The house had been prettily decorated with smilax, yellow daffodils and yellow tulips and music was furnished during the afternoon by the Bliss orchestra. About one hundred ladies responded to the invitations sent out and the afternoon was a most enjoyable one. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. O. A. Jasson and Mrs. George Benzeau of Port Edwards, Mrs. S. N. Whittlesby of Orono, Mrs. J. A. Jones of Port Arthur, Canada, and Miss Garrison of Thorpe.

Lectured Concerning the North.

A good sized audience assembled at the high school on Monday evening to hear Edward B. Barr's lecture on the subject of the Hudson Bay country. Mr. Barr's lecture was illustrated by a number of handsome slides and the evening was thoroughly enjoyed by those in attendance.

The hopes of the local basketball team were a trifle upset on Friday night when they played the Weyauwega team at Appleton and were beaten by a score of 20 to 24. The boys had been playing pretty good ball, and for that matter they played a good game on Friday night, but the score would indicate that their opponents went them just a few better. Some of the friends of the boys here in the city blame them for not putting in more strenuous practice during the latter part of the season, claiming that had this been done they would have been able to win their last game, and thus not a chance to compete at Appleton.

Marshfield Times:—Supervisor E. P. Arpin of Grand Rapids will retire from the county board this year. Mr. Arpin has been the head of the Grand Rapids delegation on the board for many years and has accomplished a great deal for his constituents.

Miss Gertrude Kuntz, who is employed in Grand Forks, N. D., arrived home on Tuesday for a month's visit with her mother.

Looked Over the Water Supply.

Engineer Kirehoffer of Madison was in the city on Friday and made an examination into the water supply of the city, as well as could be done in one day, and that evening made an informal report to the city aldermen, who assembled at the city hall to hear what he had to say.

Mr. Kirehoffer stated that it was impossible to tell what the supply here amounted to from the examination he had made, but that it would be possible to find out definitely in a comparatively short time. He stated that this work could be done by Engineer Pfeiffer as well as by him, and that it would be much cheaper this way than to keep a man here from outside to do the work.

He stated that the water supply here depended entirely on the depth of the water bearing soil where the wells are located, and in order to find out what the water supply amounted to it would be necessary to find out how deep this soil is. He stated that this was the only thing that would tell the amount of water to be obtained, as the water was only in the sand that lay on top of the clay and rock. That the rock in this section was not water bearing, so that it would be of no use to go below the surface of the rock in the attempt to get water.

Mr. Kirehoffer made a few tests while here, and in some places he found that the soil was quite deep, while in others it was rather shallow, so that it was impossible to determine just what the outcome of a series of tests would be. He left instructions for continuing the test with instructions for reporting to him, and from these reports he will be able to decide what is best to be done here.

It might be stated that Mr. Kirehoffer has made quite a study of water supplies, and in other places where he has worked he has been quite successful in solving problems of this kind.

Some of our citizens are of the opinion that we will never be able to secure enough spring water to supply the city for any length of time, and that the only solution of the problem is to lay another set of mains than which river water can be run, which would handle the supply for all ranch purposes, and then the spring water could be used exclusively for cooking and drinking purposes. There is no question but what this would solve the matter, but it would be an expensive solution, and it is hardly possible that there may be a cheaper way.

Stock Owners Will Meet.

Dr. David Roberts, ex State Veterinarian of Wisconsin, will address the stockmen of this community at the Ideal Theatre Saturday, March 27, at 10 o'clock a. m. on the subject of "The Importance of Healthy Stock."

Dr. Roberts has become a cattle specialist and is considered authority on cattle diseases. He is conducting a campaign of education among the stock owners of the United States and has been called to various states to address live stock organizations.

It will be well to attend this meeting as they will be able to obtain valuable information, and are privileged to ask any questions regarding diseases of live stock.

Admission free

Spring Term to Begin April 12.

The Grand Rapids Business College will close on Friday, April 24 for a vacation of one week. The spring term will begin on Monday, April 12th.

The attendance during the winter session has been larger than ever before, the rooms being crowded to the limit of their capacity.

Within the past few days several calls for competent bookkeepers and stenographers have been received, not only from Grand Rapids, but also from other cities, including Black River Falls, Tomahawk and Oshkosh.

This school is growing to be very well known throughout the state, and its graduates are in demand. Eight students have secured positions during the present month.

New Art Store Opened.

H. A. Secker, who recently came here from Kaukauna to open an art store in the Daly theater block, got things in operation last week and has some nice things on exhibition for the people of this city. Mr. Secker is also an expert upholsterer, picture framer, etc., and will be pleased to render our citizens what he can along this line.

Wanted at Once.

Six men to prepare positions on the local street car line to be built this spring. Apply in own hand writing to J. T. W. Brown, Grand Rapids, Wis.

At the coming election which occurs on the 6th of April, the ladies will be allowed to do some voting if they care to, as there is a state superintendent and a county superintendent to be elected, and the ladies can vote for both of these persons. As the county superintendent is not voted for here in the city of Grand Rapids, there will be only one man that our ladies can cast their ballot for. While it is probable that there will not be many ladies taking advantage of the opportunity, the ballots have to be prepared by the county clerk just the same as if all of them were going to take a hand.

COMING ATTRACTIONS DALY'S THEATER.

Band Concert, March 30th.
Tuesday, April 6th, Walter Thomas, M. A. M.
Friday, April 9th, Stetson's Big Udder Toms Cabin.

Survivors Here Again.

During the past week the survivors for the Wisconsin Central company have been on the ground here and have run lines across the river to the west side where the route for the new track has been laid out and stakes set. Soundings have also been made in the river just below where the Green Bay & Western bridge now stands, which would indicate that this is the place where it is proposed to cross the river. After the river is crossed the line runs along very close to the Green Bay & Western right of way, until it turns north and joins the line now running to Marshfield.

The indications are that the company will put the depot for the main line on the east side of the river, altho of course, this is all speculation at the present time and may be done entirely different from what is now looks.

It is reported that the southern part of the survey has also been completed, and this would indicate that the company would be all ready to go to work this season in case they wanted to. However, the building of a railroad is quite a proposition, and it is doubtful if things could now be got in readiness for the coming season.

Death of Francis Protteau.

Francis Protteau died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. L. A. Barrette at Portland, Oregon, on the 2d of March, 1909, cause of death being heart failure.

Deceased was born in Joliet, Canada, in the year 1832, and was consequently in his 77th year. He came to Grand Rapids many years ago and resided here until about eight years ago, when he went to St. Paul, and from there to Portland, where he has since lived.

He is survived by four children, they being: Middle Protteau of Port Edwards, Peter E. Protteau of Minneapolis, Mrs. Alberta Barrette of Portland, Oregon, and Mrs. Pamela Daily of Hudson, Wis. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. A. T. Marceau, of this city.

Put In an Iron Bridge.

The Consolidated Water Power & Paper Co. have recently had an iron bridge constructed to connect the wood room with the upper part of the mill, which will prove of considerable convenience for those who are compelled to pass between these two parts of the mill. The bridge was put in by Wausau parties.

—The Baptist ladies will serve a ten cent supper at the home of Mrs. Fred Jackson this afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock.

Hit the Nail on the Head.

Over at Stevens Point the other night the business men had a meeting and banquet. There was not many business men there, most of those present being professional men. Among those who had a word or two to say was ex-mayor Hanna, who addressed those assembled in a very pointed manner and handed them some facts that should keep them thinking for some time. Among other things Mr. Hanna said:

"If I were to suggest the remedy for the principal ills of this city I would say apply the co-operation treatment. Get together and find out what you want and then go after it altogether. They talk about the progress of the city of Wausau. The secret of Wausau's growth is co-operation. Take wet goods, for instance! Could you sell a dollar's worth of foreign beer in Wausau? Not much! But take Stevens Point. We buy $90,000 worth of Green Bay beer per year, we buy $40,000 worth of mill products and from $30,000 to $50,000 worth of cigars per year from outside concerns, all wholly unnecessary for goods of equal or better value are made at home. If we are really looking for the improvement of Stevens Point why don't we use just common sense and buy these things at home?"

What Mr. Hanna said about Stevens Point will apply equally well to any other town, no matter where it may be situated nor how high or low the taxes may be. It seems that most of the candidates over at Stevens Point is because the taxes are so high, the kickers not realizing that if there is money spent it is the citizens that get the benefit of it. Every man who sends out of town for anything he can get at home is doing just that much toward making his taxes higher.

Ricker-Sprecher.

Jacob Sprecher of this city and Miss Blanche Ricker of Westfield, were married on Thursday last week at the home of the bride's parents in Westfield.

Both of the contracting parties are well and favorably known in this city, the groom having been employed for a number of years past as machine tender in the Consolidated plant, while the bride has spent the greater part of her time here for several years past, being employed as trimmer in one of our millinery establishments. They have many friends here who will unite with the Tribune in extending the heartiest of congratulations.

Electric Line Notes.

Since the last publication of the Tribune everything pertaining to the proposed electric line has been moving along nicely and those interested in the matter report that a subscription plan has been formulated in this neighborhood and that the people in this city and Port Edwards have subscribed for about $15,000 of the stock of the new company. When the subscription paper was sent home it had on it about $50,000, making a total of about $65,000 that have been subscribed.

This is considered pretty good, inasmuch as the paper was here for only one day and as a consequence there were a number of our people who were not even at all inclined to do something.

This state of affairs is considered pretty good by those who are interested in the matter, and it is their opinion that there will be no trouble in securing all the stock subscribed in a very short time.

Lobbyists of Two Species.

This paper in its next issue will present as its leading feature a local lobby written, handily and humorously, which has attracted of great interest, which has lobbyists for its topic. The lobbyist in one role is a poet and sometimes a criminal; in another he or she is the benefactor of the people.

Mr. Clark will tell what lobbyists have done and he will also relate tales which have never before been printed about them, all strictly adhering to fact. Official Washington likes some lobbyists and despises others. Why?

maliciously or wantonly kill, maim, mutilate, disfigure or injure any horse, mule, cattle, sheep, or other domestic animal or himself or another.
B. Or administer poison to such an animal, or expose any poison with intent that the same may be taken or swallowed by such animal.
C. And any person who shall overdrive, overwork, overload, maim, wound, torture, torment, cruelly
beat, or kill such an animal belonging to himself or another.
D. Or being the owner, or having the care or charge of such animal shall fail to provide necessary food,
water and shelter.
E. Or who shall turn out and abandon without proper care and protection, or who shall cruelly work
any such animal when old, diseased,
disabled, or unfit for work.
F. Or who shall carry or confine any live animal, fowl, or bird, in a cruel or inhuman manner.
G. Or who shall expose, procure,
or abet any cruelty above mentioned,
or the fighting or baiting of bulls,
dogs, or cocks.
Shall in all cases where such criminally results in the death of such animal, or bird, or fowl, or where the death of such animal is occasioned
by the administering of poison,
be punished by imprisonment
in the county jail for a period of not less than 3 months, or by imprisonment in the State Prison for a period
not to exceed two years, or by a fine
not to exceed five hundred dollars.
All other cases shall be punished
by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months, or by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.
Note—Horses and other animals left standing on streets without proper food, water and protection from cold and stormy weather, will be placed in some stable where proper care will be given them until such time as the owner thereof, or person having the same in charge, shall pay the expense of such keeping and take them away.
Note—We ask all men to remember when they seek food, drink, shelter and warmth for themselves, that all dumb animals under their care used
the same consideration and care.
The Humane Educational Society has issued the following rules for drivers, and must be observed, otherwise prosecutions may follow:
1. Blanket your horses in cold and damp weather, and they will live longer, and see that their shoes
are kept sharp in slippery weather.
2. Don't forget to feed your horses their full share of oats, and don't forget to water them.
3. Speak to your horse in a kind tone, instead of whipping him or kicking him; get him used to following your voice instead.
4. Don't jerk your horse; remember he has feelings, and never use
the whip unless it is necessary.
5. Don't never overload or overwork your horse; you as a human believe must be humane.
6. On street inclines, with a heavy load, have an extra horse, or better yet, don't load so heavy.
7. Don't grope more than his strength allows.
8. Hitch your horse near the wagon; he can pull better.
9. If your horse is lame or has sore feet, take care of him and leave him in the barn; don't work him until he is well.
10. Don't use a high check-rein;
he can pull better without any.
11. Don't use eye-blinders; your horse is better off without them. If you will use them, never let them become loose or cover his eyes or they will rub against his eyes and cause blindness.
12. Don't use a sharp bit; your horse's mouth is tender; and always warm the bit in cold weather before putting it in his mouth.
13. Turn your horses away from the wind when they stand, and brace the wheel against the curb when they stand on an incline, or put a stone under the wheel.
14. If your horse falls get his front feet up first. If it is slippery throw sand or ashes under foot, or put a blanket under his front feet.
15. Don't be hard on your horse.
Wait him when you own. It is the fast driving that wears him out.
Don't trot him up and down hill.
16. Fight against the awful habit of docking. A horse needs his tail.
It is graceful and his natural protection from flies and other insects.
17. In the summer stand your horse in the shade. Water him often, and wash out his nostrils with cold water. Be humane and you and your horse will be happy.
18. When your faithful horse has become useless have him mercifully killed by the Wisconsin Humane society officer, M. E. Bruce.

KELLNER
Rev. Mellicke held the weekly services at the Aug. H. Miller home

Is Now Serving a Life Sentence.
A dispatch to one of the dailies from Concord, N. H., under date of March 10, states that the "Rambler," who will be remembered as one of the bold robbers who put up such a hard fight with Wild Rose, after having robbed
the bank at that place a few years ago, is a life convict. The dispatch is as follows:
"The mysterious John Doe, life convict at the state prison, has broken his silence and told Warden Scott that he is the 'Rambler,' a name familiar to the world of yesterday; also that he is Jim Bladso,
a name unknown to his fellow rogues,
but remembered in Saratoga, Ontario,
where he was born 35 years ago, and where they called him the 'Shiner.' Bladso's confession about barbers and murders at Lancaster, Ontario,
Wild Rose, Wis., and Farmington, Quebec, in the fall and winter of 1905 have not been corroborated. In these he says he was associated with 'Chi' (Chicago) Eddie, who was killed at Lancaster; Liverpool Tom, who was killed at Wild Rose, in a bunkhouse; Prisco Yellow, Six-Foot-Two,
and other notorious rogues."

Solve Cranberry Problem.
The new method of cranberry culture recommended last year by Professor A. R. Whistler, which involves sanding the beds, better drainage and clean cultivation, indicates that the most problem in cranberry culture is now practically solved, according to the annual report of the University of Wisconsin Agricultural Experiment Station. The insects which injure the cranberry have been studied in co-operation with federal investigators and methods of controlling developed.

ASSIST TEACHERS.
Normal School Bureau for the Purpose of Assisting to Place Teachers.
To Superintendents, Teachers and School Boards:
With a view to making the normal
schools more serviceable to the state and of increasing the effectiveness of their co-operation with the public schools, the board of regents of normal schools has established a normal school bureau in the office of the board, at Madison, Wisconsin.
This bureau has in charge the registration of all normal school graduates who are desirous of teaching and the rendering of its free service to all school boards and superintendents desiring teachers. It aims to be of service to the 5,000 normal school graduates now teaching and to the 7,000 school boards employing teachers.
There is kept in the normal school bureau a classified list of normal school graduates who desire to teach.
Evidence is collected from all available sources concerning the scholarship, personal qualities and success in the school room of the graduates thus registered. Graduates from every course can register but not until the expiration of three months of teaching after graduation. These teachers are classified, by the card
reference system as to grade of work for which each is best suited, and by the subjects to be taught. The facilities of the bureau will be free to members of school boards and to superintendents and principals of schools, desiring to employ teachers.
For the service thus rendered, a fee of $1.00 is charged to each normal school graduate who registers in the normal school bureau. The term of registration is for one year beginning January 1, 1909. No other fee or commission during the year is required. By a resolution of the board of regents of the normal schools, it is made the duty of the secretary of the board to deposit with the state treasurer all the fees collected, the same to be made a separate fund to pay the costs of postage, printing and extra clerical help employed for the normal school bureau. The fee of $1.00 will probably be deemed very moderate for the service rendered when it is considered that nearly every teachers' agency charges a recruitment fee of $2.00 and a five per cent commission on the first year's salary.
The service of the bureau is entirely free to members of school boards,
and to superintendents and principals of schools. Those desiring teachers should call at, or write to the normal school bureau, stating:
1. Grade of work.
2. Number of pupils.
3. Salary.
4. When work begins.
5. When appointment will be made.
6. To whom application should be made.
7. Subjects to be taught if in a high school or special position.
In calls for teachers, as complete information as possible in regard to the vacancy is desired. The more explicit the information, the more effective will be the effort to find the right person. On each call for a teacher, the bureau will send the credentials of two or more teachers best suited to the position.
Every normal school graduate from any course can register. Upon receipt of the registration fee of $1.00, sent by money order or by express order,
an enrollment ticket and directions will be returned and the services of the bureau enlisted to secure the teacher in the position.
Address, Normal School Bureau,
William Kittle, Secretary.

ECZEMA LODGES IN THE SKIN
Not a Blood Disease—Cured by Oil of Winter-
green Compound
—For many years eczema was supposed to be a blood disease and was erroneously treated as such, but now
the best authorities agree that eczema is only a skin disease and must be cured through the skin. The eminent skin specialist, Dr. D. D. Dennis, first discovered the eczema germ and his discovery was quickly taken up in both Germany and France.
To kill the eczema germ and at the same time heal the skin, Dr.
Dennis compounded oil of wintergreen thymol, glycerine, etc. (The remedy is a liquid, not a mere salve, hence it sinks right into the pores of the skin. Washing with this oil of wintergreen compound seems to take the itch away at once; soon the scales
drop away and the disease disappears.

Ray Stricker was given a year in the status prison on Monday of last week at Stevens Point by Judge Webb, the charge against the young man being forgery. Now unless Roy breaks out of the prison at Wausau it is probable that little will be heard from him for the next year.

Peter Akoy, one of the solid farmers of the town of Radolph, was among the Tribune callers last week. Mr. Akoy will be a candidate for the office of treasurer of his town in the April election and considering the close race he made last spring, will, no doubt, be the successful aspirant.

The First Violin given at Daly's theater on Thursday evening was a good show in every respect, but did not compare with the one that went before it in any way, the plot being of a much weaker character, with a few few situations that were of enough interest to break the monotony. Yet, in spite of these facts it was better than we are in the habit of seeing here.

The Tribune acknowledges the receipt of a copy of the Wisconsin Arbor and Bird annual, compiled by O. S. Rice and issued by Superintendent Overy. The book is quite an elaborate affair, and has a lot of valuable matter in it that should prove interesting and instructive to teachers and others who are assisting in this work. Arbor and Bird day falls on Friday, May 7th, and will be pretty generally observed by Wisconsin schools.

The "Round Town man in the Marshfield News tells this story: William Wenzel, the butcher, is sometimes as funny as an alarm clock. The other day when he was busy doing up telephone orders a woman stepped in and looking around the shop, asked him what he had in sausage. Wenzel couldn't keep a secret and he told her "meat." "You don't seem to quite understand me," said the woman, "what I mean is what have you got and which is the best." "Oh," said Wenzel, "I have all kinds. To my notion the worst is the best."

—Martin and Emory's production of Parsifal in English and in drama form was seen at the Grand Opera House at Stevens Point Friday night. In many ways this is one of the most pretentious dramas ever attempted here, and all who attended, filling every seat in the house, were well repaid for the indulgence. Mr. Hoofs, who played the part of Amfortas king and warden of the Holy Grail, was born at Grand Rapids, Wis. being the son of a former station agent for the Green Bay and Western. Parsifal will be at Daly's theatre tonight.

Annual Report of School Superintendent.

The event for which this year will be remembered in our school history is the opening of the Witter Manual Training building. This building was completed and the larger part of the equipment was installed ready for use at the opening of this school year.

Manual Training and Domestic Science

At the present time 185 pupils are taking work in this building—100 boys in manual training and 85 girls in domestic science.

Three lines of work in manual training are now carried on. Bench work is given to all boys in the eighth grade and to those boys in the ninth year of the high school who may elect to take the manual training course. Lathe work is given in the second year of the high school. Forge work is given to boys in the third and fourth years. Mechanical drawing is taken two days in the week throughout the four years of the high school by all boys who elect manual training.

When the machine shop is equipped, machine shop work will be given in the fourth year. Possibly it may be found desirable to permit the pupil to elect this work or forge work in the third and fourth years. The latter plan is followed in many high schools. It permits a larger amount of specialization in the line of trade school work.

In domestic science work in cooking is taken by all eighth grade girls. In the high school, domestic science work for girls is elective just as manual training is for boys. Work in cooking, food study, and dressmaking is carried on throughout the four years of the high school.

Freehand drawing is taken by all eighth grade pupils. It may be elected by high school pupils for one semester in the third year of the high school.

The attic floor of the Witter building is used for Glee Club rehearsals and other work in vocal and instrumental music. It is also used by the high school literary societies.

Lunch Room.

During the past year a lunch room has been opened in one of the rooms in the domestic science department. Pupils who bring their lunches have a pleasant place to stay during the noon hour. A few articles are served, such as cocoa, coffee, sandwiches, soup, fruit and other articles are added from time to time. These are served at a price which covers the cost and no more. Pupils who wish to buy their lunch can do so. Those who wish to buy one or two articles in addition to the lunch they bring from home can do this.

Unless a student is robust and enjoys excellent health it is highly desirable that he have more than a cold lunch at noon. One or more teachers remain at noon each day. Good order and proper conduct on the part of students is thus assured. We feel that the lunch room is one of the most desirable additions which has been made to the school system for some time.

Annual Art Exhibit

The ladies of the Federated clubs have held the annual Art Exhibit in the Witter Manual Training school. This is entirely for the benefit of the schools. The aim has been to secure one picture for each grade in the city as well as several pictures for the high school. These annual art exhibits have in the past few years added many beautiful pictures to both grade and high school rooms. The influence of these in the course of years in inspiring boys and girls to become better men and women cannot be measured. One of the immediate effects is to make the school a larger degree a more pleasant place. This in turn helps to interest pupils in school to a larger degree and helps to hold them in school longer.

Northeastern Wisconsin Teachers' Association

The women's clubs rendered valuable service to the schools in co-operating to entertain the Northeastern Wisconsin Teachers' Association which met here this winter. The students of the high school co-operated cheerfully and enthusiastically during the entire convention. The teachers and interested citizens helped largely to make the convention a success. Visitors from various sections of Northeastern Wisconsin were highly pleased with Grand Rapids and with the Grand Rapids school system. This is of large benefit to the city.

It gave our neighbors an opportunity to know us and our city. The united effort we all made helped us to know each other better. It helped us to form the habit of pulling together for that which helps to build up any part of our own city. It is true in this connection as it is everywhere else, "We get by giving."

The school system of this city is under deep obligations to the public-spirited women of the city for the many ways in which they have co-operated to make our schools more effective. This work will affect the whole future of this city.

Time does not permit special mention of the work of the various departments of the schools. We believe that the work alone all these has been fully up to the usual standard of efficiency.

Semi-Annual Promotions

During the past year the system of semi-annual promotions instead of annual promotions has been adopted in the grades. The same plan has been introduced in the high school as far as the number of teachers in our high school teaching force will permit. Under this plan pupils who fail in the work of a grade go back at the middle of the year and do over the first half year's work. They fail in only a half year's work instead of the work of an entire year. This often saves the pupil a half year's time, for he will usually go on and pass in the latter half of the year's work when he is through in the first half. More than this the pupil is not allowed to flounder for a half year and thus become discouraged and drop out of school. We believe this change will add to the effectiveness of our school's work.

Much has been done for the schools of this city by the public spirited citizens and by the generous tax paying public who have liberally supported the schools by taxation. All this is deeply appreciated by all who have the best interests of the city at heart.

While this is true, and while we have a right to feel that gratifying progress has been made, we ought not to rest satisfied without further progress in the future. We ought rather to press on to much better things just as fast as our resources will permit. Great changes are taking place in public school education. These changes will make the public schools many times more valuable in the future.

Evening Schools

This splendid equipment of the Witter manual training school should not only be open to the regular high school pupil, but arrangements should undoubtedly be made to afford those who work during the day an opportunity to improve themselves through evening instructions. In all large cities hundreds of boys are rising into the ranks of skilled workmen through evening school work. The equipment here will be ample for work of this kind. The same is true of evening and Saturday classes in domestic science for women.

Summer Sessions

There is no good reason why this plant should be idle during the summer months. Young men who wish to master more thoroughly the work offered in a manual training school should have an opportunity to work here during the summer. This work is fundamental to the trade the boy expects to follow and leads directly to the ability to earn a better livelihood. Students in the high school who are preparing for college with the purpose of entering a profession have little or no opportunity to take manual training or domestic science work. Their time is fully occupied with other necessary studies. Students who are attending parochial schools in the city do not have an opportunity to get this work. Both of these classes of students could easily do this work in the summer months.

Women who wish to become more proficient in any line of domestic science work should have the same opportunity. Additional skill on their part makes the salary of the husband go that much further and adds to the health and happiness of the family. It also makes household work a science, not merely unskilled drudgery.

Just what it will be profitable to do along these various lines is a problem which only experiment can determine. The future possibilities are great.

Medical Inspection

We are just beginning to realize that a sound mind is impossible without a well-developed body. We are coming to see that it is impossible for a child to study to profit by instruction unless he is physically fit. Further, we are coming to see that the school must not be allowed to become a menace to the health of the community through spreading contagious diseases.

Massachusetts has a state law requiring medical inspection of all city schools. Many of the cities of the country are adopting this plan. The Milwaukee school board voted recently to employ a competent school physician.

Since school opened last September 300 children have been absent from school on account of contagious diseases. They have been absent from school from 9 to 30 days each. The average time lost by pupils is 13 days.

The bright child can many times make up the work lost and still do the work of the grade in one year, especially if his parents are able and willing to help him. But for the child of average ability, it often means that he will be obliged to do over again at least a half year's work.

These pupils who have been out and are behind make it necessary for the teacher to take the entire class over ground already mastered by those who were not absent. The time of the teacher, or stated otherwise the tax-payers' money is thus being wasted. There is a corresponding loss of interest. This fact becomes of much greater significance when we reflect that everywhere only part of the children complete even the graded schools. Many parents keep their children in school for the first eight years at a great struggle and at much sacrifice. How important then that these pupils lose no time unnecessarily.

Wherever schools have been examined by competent physicians it has been found that a considerable number of pupils are afflicted with eye, ear, nose and throat difficulties which makes it impossible for them to do good school work. A large part of the time of the teacher is wasted in the attempt to teach these pupils for they are physically unable to profit by the instructions.

Medical inspection is desirable, first as a means of protecting the public health by preventing the spread of contagious diseases, second as a means of saving the taxpayer's money, by preventing the waste of the teacher's time used in attempting to teach those who are physically unfit for school; third as the only way in which we can give these physically defective children a fair chance in life. The expenditure of a little more money here will make all school funds pay a much larger return on the investment.

It may be that this city is not yet ready to take up this work. It is nevertheless a subject which should command our serious consideration.

Physical Education

Systematic physical training is another important phase of the newer education. This includes systematic gymnastic training in the school room and in the gymnasium. This training laid in view general physical development and the correction of physical defects.

Physical training includes play-ground games, and play-ground gymnasium work. Work in the open air is of all things most conducive to good physical development. Further, this gives play ground activities a definite object, and this in turn removes much of the incentive to the demoralizing tendencies and practices which will otherwise often prevail on the play ground.

These things are not facts. They are among the essentials if education is to build up the strongest and cleanest type of citizen.

NEW TARIFF BILL IS INTRODUCED IN HOUSE

Measure Would Increase Country's Revenues from Customs to $300,000,000 a Year---Inheritance Tax Planned---Coffee on Free List

Washington. — The ways and means committee of the house has begun consideration of the tariff bill which was introduced Wednesday. The measure as it now stands would increase the country's revenues from customs to $300,000,000 a year.

The senate committee on finance also began informal consideration of the measure. The probabilities are that the house committee will have only one sitting on the bill, that the measure will be reported to the house immediately after it convenes today and the debates will begin next Monday.

The measure, which was introduced by Senator Payne, chairman of the committee, chairman of the ways and means committee provides for an inheritance tax; increased internal revenue tax on cigarettes; a $40,000,000 issue of Panama canal bonds; an increased issue of $150,000,000 of treasury certificates; and the imposition of duties on a maximum and minimum basis. Coffee, hides and iron ore are on the free list; boots and shoes, leather goods, steel and iron products, lumber, wool shoddy, and waste, and the cheaper grades of third-class wool are materially reduced. The internal revenue tax on beer and whiskey is not disturbed. Thirty thousand copies will be printed.

No Duty on Coffee. While there is no duty imposed upon coffee, tea is taxed eight cents a pound, but the duties on coffee and tea are not to be reduced, and nine cents when from other than the producing country. The internal revenue tax on cigarettes is materially increased, while the tax on beer and whiskey is undisturbed. A cut of 50 per cent. is made in the duty on cotton, cotton wool, of 3 cents a pound, raw and spun, and of 2 cents a pound, cotton wool, and works of art more than 20 years old are placed on the free list.

The tariff on boots and shoes is reduced 40 per cent. and on other leather manufactures in proportion. The pottery schedule remains about the same, but the duties on window and plate glass of the smaller sizes are increased, while the duties on the larger sizes are reduced. The tariff on wool of the first and second class, used principally in clothing, is not disturbed, but on wool of the third class, known as carpet wool, it is reduced on the cheaper grades.

PLENTY OF GAME IN AFRICA

HIPPOTAMUS AND RHINOCEROSSES AWAIT ROOSEVELT.

Transvaal Boer Leader in Hospital Terribly Lacerated by Queen of Beasts.

Mambasa, British East Africa.—Sportsmen whose interest has been revived by the coming visit of former President Roosevelt to the African jungles say the distinguished hunter will find plenty of game of all varieties.

Baron Tilly de Vizen, a prominent Hungarian, who has just returned from a hunting trip, reports a splendid sport with hippopotami on the Upper Tana river and for the shooting of the game he recommends the district between the Athi and the Tana rivers. The game, gu and oryx stalking is perfect with the exception that hunters of this game are constantly interfered with by unusually aggressive rhinoceroses.

Lions are plentiful, but with some exceptions they seem to be thin. A man named Smith, a hunter, has recently been killed by a lion. The lion was shot in the country, was carried Tuesday into the hospital at Nairobi, and is now in a critical condition. No black man has been seen since the lion's attack.

The lions are tame. They have been tamed in the Nairobi park, but otherwise they are holding out. It is now certain that they will be heavy during the first part of Mr. Roosevelt's trip.

The Uganda commission hopes that Mr. Roosevelt will visit the big camp in Uganda, where natives suffering from the sleeping sickness are cared for. The hospitality of the Mombasa club will be extended to the distinguished American visitor when he reaches here and he will be similarly entertained at Nairobi.

At this city Mr. Roosevelt will be entertained also by the governor of British East Africa, Sir James Hayes Sadler and Lady Sadler, and at Entebbe, in Uganda, by H. Hesketh-Boele, governor of the Uganda protectorate. Gov. Bell will offer Mr. Roosevelt the use of a trained elephant to facilitate travel through the country infested with the dangerous tsetse fly.

RIOTS FEARED IN PARIS. Troops in Readiness to Quell Disturbances Over Wire Strike.

Paris.—The latter carriers have joined the strike of the telegraphers, telephone operators and mail clerks employed by the post-office department. At a meeting Wednesday night they voted by a large majority to begin a strike today after the first delivery. Eight hundred postmen employed in the delivery of newspapers and parcels went out after the last distribution.

The strike movement has gained rapidly, Paris being practically isolated from the rest of France and France from the outside world. Eight thousand strikers passed a resolution to maintain the struggle to the bitter end. The strike was held in readiness at Versailles to reinforce the Paris troops in case any demonstration of a serious nature occurred Wednesday, which was a holiday.

Corbett Wants to Fight. Wheeling, W. Va.—James J. Corbett has issued a second challenge for a fight with either Jeffries or Johnson. In it he says: "I will forward a check for $1,000 to Al Smith, the well-known stakeholder, in New York, as a guarantee of my good faith."

Climax to Insurance Scandal. New York.—What is probably a final echo of the insurance scandal of three years ago was heard Thursday when "District Attorney Jerome" appeared before Justice Blachard in the criminal branch of the supreme court and requested that indictments be returned against George W. Perkins of the New York Life Insurance Company; Charles S. Fairchild, a director of the New York Life; and Robert A. Grannis, vice-president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, be dismissed. Justice Blachard reserved decision.

Ex-Mayor Called by Grand Jury. Los Angeles, Cal.—Former Mayor Arthur C. Harper reached here Wednesday in obedience to a subpoena to appear before the special grand jury Thursday in the investigation of charges of graft made against his administration.

Indiana Governor Frees Convict. Laporte, Ind.—Thomas McCarty, who last August gave himself up to the Indiana state prison, after walking from Chicago to Michigan City, was pardoned by Gov. Marshall.

Attempt to Assassinate Mayor. Pass Christian, Miss.—Two unidentified men attempted to assassinate Mayor E. J. Adams. One of the men was wounded by Mayor Adams with an upraised knife when Mrs. Adams awoke and screamed. The men were frightened off and escaped.

Winconsin Man Slays Brother. Eau Claire, Wis.—Joseph Foss was shot dead last night by his brother, Henry Foss, a dismissed policeman, who then shot himself, inflicting probably fatal wounds.

Claimant of Millions Dies. Kansas City, Mo.—Amos Brundage, claimant to an estate in Jersey City, N. J., said to be valued at several millions, died at his home in Kansas City, Kan., of pneumonia, aged 60.

REBELLION CRUSHED

CUBAN OFFICIALS SAY SURRENDER IS OFFERED.

ONE OF LEADERS SLAIN

Government Statement Asserts the Revolutionists Are Willing to Give Up if Their Lives Are Saved.

Havana.—The revolution which began in Santa Clara province Monday bids fair to be stamped out by the government at once. Spanish officials report that the rebellion is ineffectual others think it more seriously.

After withholding news of the trouble, the police officials have announced that the father of two of the members of the band headed by Serg. Cortes of the rural guard had visited Gen. Montenegro, chief of the guard at Camaguey, and told him that the insurgents implored the clemency of the government and were anxious to surrender on the promise that their lives would be spared.

Gen. Montenegro, accompanied by a strong escort, thereupon started for the insurgent camp. The general expected to receive their surrender Thursday.

The insurgents are now completely surrounded by a cordon of more than one thousand rurales, drawn from the garrisons in various parts of the island, including Havana, but owing to the rugged character of the country it will be extremely difficult for the troops to come to close quarters with the rebels.

While the government still insists that the band consists of only eight men, it is alleged that the movement is far-reaching and includes quite a large number of those who have become disaffected with the way affairs have been conducted.

Lavastida, a former captain of the rurales guards, was shot and killed by the detachment of the guard sent out to arrest him. It is alleged that he resisted. Lavastida was reported to be actually as having been arrested at Pinaras on the charge of complicity in the insurrectionary movement.

It is rumored that the uprising is more serious than the authorities are willing to admit.

Secretary of Government Alberdi and Gen. Machado went to the palace at nine o'clock yesterday to confer with President Gomez. Later a cabinet meeting was called and it was decided that an official statement would be given out soon. President Gomez is in receipt of many telegrams from officials, veteran organizations and private citizens pledging loyalty and active support in the maintenance of the republic.

Reports received here from various parts of the island show an extraordinary concentration of the rurales guards in the directions of Vuelta, Camaguey and Pinaras, apparently far in excess of the requirements to pursue and capture the eight men who started the movement and who are still at large.

It is declared that Gen. Pino Guerra, commander of the permanent army, left Havana Wednesday for the scene.
